www.oncologyadvance.com
High-quality journals covering the entire field.

We are proud to present you with this comprehensive overview of more than 50 high-quality journals published by Elsevier in the dynamic field of oncology.

This catalogue includes flagship titles such as The Lancet Oncology and European Journal of Cancer and journals published on behalf of prestigious societies such as the Society of Gynecologic Oncology, the European Society for Surgical Oncology, the Royal College of Radiologists, the Society of Hematologic Oncology, the International Myeloma Society, and the International Association for the Study of Lung Cancer.

Many of the journals listed are unique in their own right, but there are also a number of interdisciplinary aspects that unite them. This catalogue will help you quickly identify high-quality journals that are relevant to your interests or a potential home for your next research paper. On every journal’s website you will find free online sample issues, the latest issue contents, submission guidelines, email alerts sign-ups, and more. To access the journals online please go to: www.oncologyadvance.com — the gateway to Elsevier’s oncology journals and other relevant news and professional information.

We are also pleased to offer the opportunity to publish your article as open access in many of our oncology journals. Elsevier publishes a growing number of full open access journals, such as Neoplasia, Translational Oncology, Gynecologic Oncology Reports, and Leukemia Research Reports. Over 1,600 of our established journals now support open access articles. Elsevier has agreements with funding bodies such as the Wellcome Trust and RCUK to help facilitate open access publication. To find out more please go to: www.elsevier.com/about/open-science.

Your contributions as authors, readers, editors and reviewers of our journals are much appreciated and we welcome any feedback you may have about our programme.

Yours sincerely,

Anne Lloyd PhD
